Dear Dr. Apip,

You will be happy to know that your manuscript #090415-103339, entitled "Gasoline and Synthetic Fuel from Plastic Waste: Study for Engine Performance," submitted to the International Journal of Manufacturing, Materials, and Mechanical Engineering (IJMMME), has passed the journal's editorial review process. Next, your manuscript will be submitted to IGI Global for a final check to ensure that all publication requirements have been met. Your paper cannot be formally accepted for publication until this final step is complete. To ensure the timely and efficient completion of this step, please check that you have completed the following:

- All final submission requirements have been met as outlined in the Author's Checklist: <http://www.igi-global.com/publish/resources/journal-author-checklist.pdf>
- Each author on your manuscript has updated and confirmed their biography, email, and mailing address, and has signed the Author's Warranty and Transfer of Copyright Agreement. Any authors who have yet to complete any of these items may do so here: <http://www.igi-global.com/submission/copyright-agreement/?projectid=ba609963-ece8-4009-9459-65e52ef6a7b0>

Should any of these materials be needed or need to be corrected, you will be contacted by a member of IGI Global's book development team to secure the necessary details prior to publication.

No manuscript will be accepted unless it strictly follows the manuscript guidelines, i.e., must be professionally copyedited, references and citations formatted according to APA style guidelines, and includes all mandatory sections (Introduction, Background, Future Research Directions, Conclusion, References, Additional Reading, and Key Terms and Definitions.
