

BUKTI KORESPONDENSI ARTIKEL

Identitas dan indeksasi

Judul Makalah	: An Analysis of Directive Speech Acts Used by Male Lecturer of ELESP FKIP Lambung Mangkurat University in Classroom Context
Nama Prosiding	: Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Language Teaching (ICOLLATE 2021)
Link Jurnal	: https://repo-dosen.ulm.ac.id/handle/123456789/24246
Link Sertifikat	: -

Keterangan:

Makalah berjudul "An Analysis of Directive Speech Acts Used by Male Lecturer of ELESF FKIP Lambung Mangkurat University in Classroom Context" ditulis oleh tim dengan author 3 orang, saya hanya penulis kedua bukan penulis korespondensi.

The screenshot shows a PDF document titled "AN ANALYSIS OF DIRECTIVE SPEECH ACTS USED BY MALE LECTURER OF ELESF FKIP LAMBUNG MANGKURAT UNIVERSITY IN CLASSROOM CONTEXT". The document is from "The 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Language Teaching: FBS UNY, October 28, 2021". The authors listed are Shanti Kevin Tanudjaja¹, Hanik Mariani,² and Noor Eks Chandra,³ all from Lambung Mangkurat University. Contact information for Hanik Mariani (hanik.mariani@ulm.ac.id) and Noor Eks Chandra (nooreka_chandra@ulm.ac.id) is provided. The abstract discusses the study of directive speech acts in an educational context, mentioning that questioning is the most used act (92 utterances), followed by suggesting (15), requesting (8), commanding (7), permitting (5), and encouraging (4). The introduction begins with the sentence: "As social beings, it is said that human of information, messages, and a method of transmission by one person to another".