Form of Agreement

I, the undersigned, hereby agree with the points below:

1. The conference committee facilitates publication in Scopus indexed journals until the paper are published.
2. Minor revisions and edits are included in facilitation while major and substantial revisions are the responsibility of the participants.
3. The decision to accept, cost, and publication time in the intended journal remains the authority of the journal manager in question.
4. The committee will process the paper to the destination journal. If the paper is accepted by the destination journal, the committee will notify the author.
5. If the paper is rejected by the destination journal, the committee will notify the author and provide alternative journal destinations.
6. If there is a major revision, participants must submit the revision results according to the set deadline. Participants who are late in providing the revision results are deemed not to take publication facilitation rights in the Scopus indexed journal.
7. If the paper is accepted, the authors are required to pay publication fees charged by the editor.
8. The author can pay for the publication fee himself or can be assisted by the committee by paying additional clearing fees and bank fees.
9. Participants who do not pay the publication fee are deemed not to take their publication facilitation rights in the Scopus indexed journal.
10. The committee is not willing to create, change content, modify or fabricate data.
11. Content is the responsibility of the author and is not the responsibility of the committee at all.
