Plagiarism Check Result

AFBE Asian Forum On Business Education <afbe.feb@ub.ac.id> to me Thu, Feb 27, 2020, 9:24 PM

Dear Author,

After reviewing your manuscript's revision and conducting plagiarism check using Turnitin software, we found that your paper shows plagiarized material of >15%, we would like to inform that the due date of the re-submission of the reviewed paper is February 28, 2020 at 13.00 WIB

The revised paper must meet the requirement of the Atlantis Press which is maximum 15% tolerance of plagiarism (with 5% max of each source), thus we oblige you to revise your paper based on the plagiarism check result as attached.

A failure in re-submitting will result in the cancellation of your manuscript publication.

Thank you in advance for your kind cooperation.

Sincerely Yours,
AFBE Committee

AFBE was formed in 1992 as a supportive group of universities with interests in the Asia region. The primary objective of AFBE was to improve the quality of business education across the region. To this end, since 1992, AFBE has conducted annual academic conferences, published an on-line journal, and has introduced an accreditation system with the strategic intent of raising the quality of business school programs. Considerable progress has been made in the quality of business education in Asia, with the gap between many Asian universities, and the more traditional highly ranked world-class universities, closing in recent years. However, in a complex and dynamic corporate world, business education is bound to be challenged to keep pace, so our work at AFBE continues on change and quality improvement to produce graduates who remain competitive in an increasingly global
