Thank you for the information you provide

There are a number of questions we want to submit

First, if we choose publications in the journal at a price below 800 USD What about the fund difference? because before we had made payments of 800 USD

Second, if we choose the Webology journal ISSN 1735-188x Q3 with a publication fee of 450 USD, the remaining funds are 350 USD. Can we use the remaining funds to add 1 other publication article on the Journal of Positive School Psychology ISSN: 2717-7564 with a publication cost of 350 USD?
