Mr. Plygun, I am sorry to tell you that the affiliation of my name as you wrote in the list of RJOAS members page (<http://www.rjoas.com/fees-and-membership/current-members/>) is incorrect. It should be written as

- Ikhsan Sadik, Faculty of Agriculture, University of Lambung Mangkurat

It is true that I am a doctoral student of agricultural economic at University of Brawijaya.
However, actually, I work as a lecturer at University of Lambung Mangkurat.

If you don't mind, could you please to correct this? Thank you

Dear Mr. Plygun

I have seen issue 4(52) of RJOAS, April 2016 at <http://www.rjoas.com/issue-2016-04/>.

Unfortunately, however, there a little error in my paper titled "THE CHANGE IN WORLD PRICE AND EXPORT TAX OF CRUDE PALM OIL AND THEIR IMPACT ON THE ECONOMY AND WELFARE IN INDONESIA: USING A COMPUTABLE GENERAL EQUILIBRIUM (CGE) MODEL". On page 40, square bracket in equation (1) and (2) as well as explanation of substitution parameter in equation (1) were not appropriately printed causing the equations may be difficult to be understood. If it is possible could you please to correct them. Here I attach my paper in MS Word and pdf file that I have set according to papers you published on RJOAS 4(52). Thank you.
