Additional Comments:

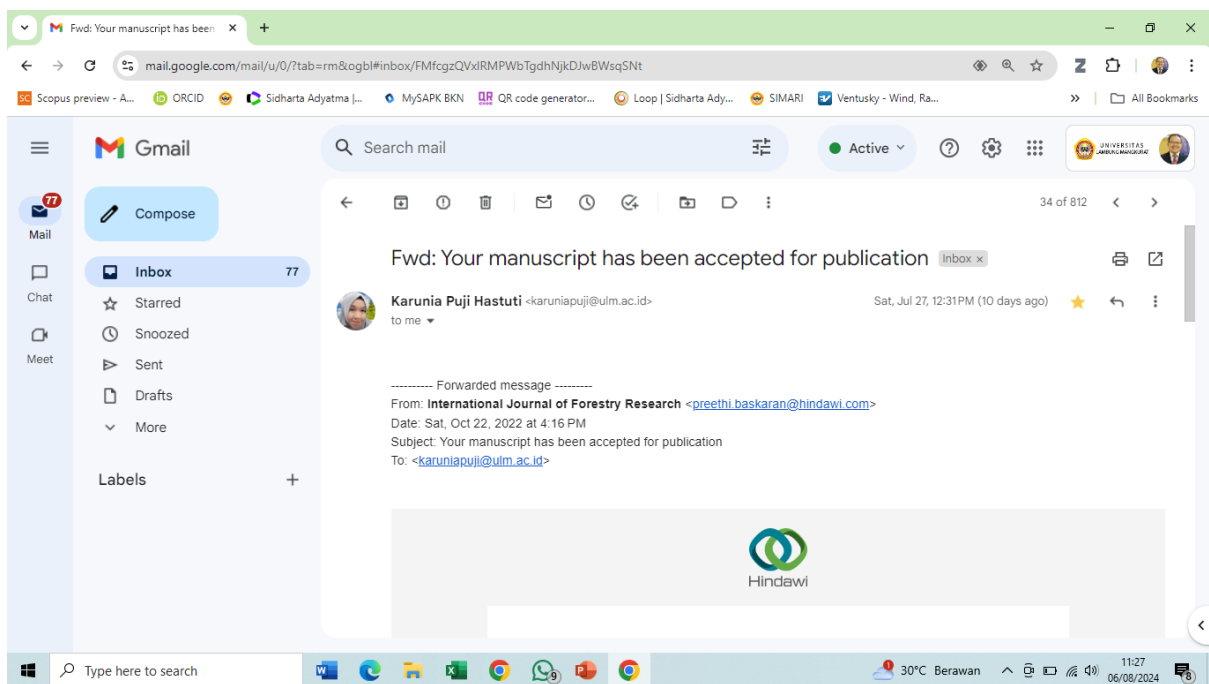

Dear Dr. Karunia Pujj Hastuti, We have noticed that you have not linked an ORCID ID to your account. We require all corresponding authors to have a linked ORCID (Open Researcher and Contributor ID) account on the Phenom Review system. Please visit <https://review.hindawi.com/profile> and select 'link' in the ORCID ID box to proceed. You will be asked to log in using the email address "karuniapuji@uim.ac.id" and the password that you previously registered on the system. If you do not already have an ORCID, you can

You will be asked to log in using the email address "karuniapuji@uim.ac.id" and the password that you previously registered on the system. If you do not already have an ORCID, you can create one by following the same link as above; ensure that you use the same name format that you have used for your Phenom account. Please note that failing to complete linking an ORCID account for the corresponding author(s) may delay eventual publication of your article. Please also provide your ORCID in response to this email for our records. (We require your registration in order to include authors' ORCID IDs in the article metadata that we submit to various indexing services. ORCID is an open, non-profit, community-based effort that has been created by a number of leading research funders, universities, and publishers to solve the name ambiguity problem in scholarly communications by creating a registry of persistent unique identifiers for individual researchers and an open and transparent linking mechanism between ORCID, other ID schemes, and research objects such as publications, grants, and patents.)
