Felipe Espino <revmedicas@gmail.com> to me Apr 22, 2024, 10:12 PM

Dear Dr:

You are hereby informed that the manuscripts or review articles and originals submitted in Latinoamericana de Hipertension (Latin American Journal of Hypertension) must be subject to the areas of arterial hypertension and its cerebral, coronary, renal and vascular complications, molecular biology, biochemistry, hemodynamics, therapeutic pathophysiology, others that you consider as diabetes, cardiometabolic syndrome, cardiovascular risk, kidney disease, etc, to avoid rejection.

The purpose of this is to inform you that your manuscript upon receipt will be in the process of being revised. If the item receives a favorable rating, you must cancel the cost of $USD 500 to the account PayPal css212518@gmail.com, once canceled it will immediately go to the peer arbitration process, which usually does not exceed 90 business days.

Type double-spaced in English, 216 x 279 mm (letter size) with margins of at least 25 mm. Use double space throughout the original. Its length should not exceed 10 pages, excluding the space for figures and legends (4-5) and tables (4-5).

Tables: The text is single spaced; the font size is 12 points; italics are used instead of underlining (except for URL addresses); and all the illustrations, figures and tables must be within the text in the place that corresponds to them and not at the end of the whole.

Tables should not occupy more than one page, if you need more space, divide it into several; put explanatory material in notes at the bottom of the table and not in the heading; explain in footnotes to the table the non-standardized abbreviations used in each table; clearly identify the statistical measures of the variables such as standard deviation and standard error of the measure; do not use horizontal or vertical lines: cite each table in sequential order within the text, cite the source of information at the bottom of the table if it is not original.

The short and concise but informative title (200 characters or less)
Abstract in English and Spanish (250 words)
